

LAWN BOWLER'S CODE OF ETHICS

- Play the game in a spirit of good sportsmanship - defined as respect for one's opponent and graciousness in playing, training, competing, whether winning or losing.
- Treat all teammates, competitors, and game officials fairly and with respect, refraining from negative remarks or conduct.
- Care for and respect property and assets of the Club and its members
- Interpret the rules in an impartial manner, never knowingly break a rule, but if done, divulge the breach.
- Respect the decisions and judgements of game officials.
- Not knowingly commit any infractions as contained in the Dispute Resolution Procedures of the NVLBC or contravene any rules or regulations of the governing bodies of lawn bowling and accept any imposed penalty if found in violation.

COACH'S CODE OF ETHICS

- Ensure a safe coaching environment by selecting activities and establishing controls that are suitable for the experience and fitness level of the participant.
- Be well prepared, ensure that all coaching duties are fulfilled with competence and coaching guidelines adhered to.
- Act in a manner that shows respect for the dignity of all participants in lawn bowling.
- Conduct yourself with courtesy, good faith and respect at all times.
- Maintain the highest standards of personal conduct and value the principles of fair play.

Updated February 16, 2023